

Pre-skills

How do I divide using a practical method?

I can divide practically by sharing objects out and putting them into equal groups using a real life context.

- Children should have lots of experience in sharing out objects in real life situations e.g sweets between friends
- Children should also have experience of putting items into equal groups e.g, pairs of socks.

